To submit a proposal for a public program at the American Academy in Rome, please see the guidelines below.

For an idea of what kinds of programming the Academy considers, please see the Events section of our website at aarome.org/events.

The Academy does not accept proposals for book presentations except for volumes that have come out of Academy-organized conferences. All proposals are reviewed by the Rome Executive Committee for Events and Programming, which will respond to proposals as soon as possible.

Please send proposals to: proposals@aarome.org

Proposals should include:

- One-page statement of purpose
- One paragraph on program's relevance to the American Academy in Rome
- Short bios of speakers/artists/musicians involved
- Detailed budget and description of funding sources
- Suggested dates for program and suggested timetable for organization of event
- Contact person for further correspondence

Generally, the Academy seeks to set its public programming one year or more in advance. As a nonprofit organization, the Academy has limited budget resources and does not usually pay honoraria.
